

Kingdom of Auspiex Online

by Michael Kozlowski

Essence Statement

Kingdom of Auspiex Online is a startling throwback to the glory days of two dimensional role-playing games for early game consoles such as the SNES and Genesis, but with an amazing twist. It's entirely online based play. The game world is set in the original fantasy realm of Auspiex: a world stricken with the aftereffects of a meteorite striking the planet two hundred years ago and plunging a hi-technology world into a new dark age.

Game Overview

Kingdom of Auspiex Online offers players the opportunity to engage in a total two dimensional environment, a concept unique to online RPG's. You may elect to group with other players, PVP, open up your own player shop, or become a world renowned hero or villain. Individual players are encouraged to explore an expansive world and gain levels of experience to further develop and customize your character. The heavy emphasis of the game is for players to dictate their own play experience.

Key Features

Game play

Group with players or strike out on your own, make sure you bring healing potions. Pick a Profession based on your play style. Thieves can steal items from player homes or other players. Warriors excel at straight up combat. Chefs and clerics are utility-based professions to help other players. Rangers and Gunners employ ranged technology to strike at a distance. Find clues and interact with other NPC's and engage in many distinct and unique quests. Not sure where to go next? Consult your quest journal and monster defeated dictionary.
